Surviving against the Odds Dec 02 2022 Read the foreword by Mara Soetoro-Ng President Barack Obama's mother, S. Ann Dunham, was an economic anthropologist and rural development consultant who worked in several countries including Indonesia. Dunham received her doctorate in 1992. She died in 1995, at the age of 52, before having the opportunity to revise her dissertation for publication, as she had planned. Dunham's dissertation adviser Alice G. Dewey and her fellow graduate student Nancy I. Cooper undertook the revisions at the request of Dunham's daughter, Maya Soetoro-Ng. The result is Surviving against the Odds, a book based on Dunham's research over a period of fourteen years among the rural metalworkers of Java, the island home to nearly half Indonesia's population. Surviving against the Odds reflects Dunham's commitment to helping small-scale village industries survive; her pragmatic, non-ideological approach to research and problem solving; and her impressive command of history, economic data, and development policy. Along with photographs of Dunham, the book includes many pictures taken by her in Indonesia. After Dunham married Lolo Soetoro in 1967, she and her six-year-old son, Barack Obama, moved from Hawai'i to Soetoro's home in Jakarta, where

Maya Soetoro was born three years later. Barack returned to Hawai'i to attend school in 1971. Dedicated to Dunham's mother Madelyn, her adviser Alice, and "Barack and Maya, who seldom complained when their mother was in the field," Surviving against the Odds centers on the metalworking industries in the Javanese village of Kajar. Focusing attention on the small rural industries overlooked by many scholars, Dunham argued that wet-rice cultivation was not the only viable economic activity in rural Southeast Asia. Surviving against the Odds includes a preface by the editors, Alice G. Dewey and Nancy I. Cooper, and a foreword by her daughter Maya Soetoro-Ng, each of which discusses Dunham and her career. In his afterword, the anthropologist and Indonesianist Robert W. Hefner explores the content of Surviving against the Odds, its relation to anthropology when it was researched and written, and its continuing relevance today.

A New Criminal Type in Jakarta Jan 03 2023 In A New Criminal Type in Jakarta, James T. Siegel studies the dependence of Indonesia's post-1965 government on the ubiquitous presence of what he calls criminality, an ensemble of imagined forces within its society that is poised to tear it apart. Siegel, a foremost authority on Indonesia, interprets Suharto's New Order—in powerful contrast to Sukarno's Old Order—and shows a cultural and political life in Jakarta controlled by a repressive regime that has created new ideas among its population about crime, ghosts, fear, and national identity. Examining the links between the concept of criminality and scandal, rumor, fear, and the state, Siegel analyzes daily life in Jakarta through the seemingly disparate but strongly connected elements of family life, gossip, and sensationalist journalism. He offers close analysis of the preoccupation with crime in Pos Kota (a newspaper directed toward the lower classes) and the middle-class magazine Tempo. Because criminal activity has been a sensationalized preoccupation in Jakarta's news venues and among its people, criminality, according to Siegel, has pervaded the identities of its ordinary citizens. Siegel examines how and why the government, fearing revolution and in an attempt to assert power, has made criminality itself a disturbing rationalization for the spectacular massacre of the people it calls criminals—many of whom were never accused of particular crimes. A New Criminal Type in Jakarta reveals that Indonesians—once united by Sukarno's revolutionary proclamations in the name of "the people"—are now, lacking any other unifying element, united through their identification with the criminal and through a "nationalization of death" that has emerged with Suharto's strong counter-revolutionary measures. A provocative introduction to contemporary Indonesia, this book will engage those interested in Southeast Asian studies, anthropology, history, political science, postcolonial studies, public culture, and cultural studies generally.

TWILIGHT OF THE WHITE RAJAHS Nov 01 2022 Power, passion, politics. The sleepy state of Sarawak is stirred up as never before by the arrival of Gerald McBryan. An unscrupulous adventurer, he soon has the Rajah and Raneé eating out of his hand. The eminence grise of Rajah Vyner, he forces through decisions that have shaped what Sarawak is today. Twilight of the White Rajahs is set in the Sarawak of the interwar and immediate postwar period. Vyner, like Henry VII of England, has inherited a tightly run ship of state. But his own playboy nature, the antics of his wife and most important his failure to produce a male heir, threaten the dynasty into which he was born. Outside forces also increase the pressure on his regime. War clouds in the Pacific and the South China Sea. The desire for self-determination. The bullying of the British Colonial Office. The turbulent wave of anti-cession created by the Rajah Muda, Peter Brooke. A war of hot tempers, cunning and deviousness ensued; a war that everyone was determined to win at all costs. Twilight of the White Rajahs recounts in fascinating detail the lives of the chief actors during this period. Twilight of the White Rajahs continues the saga of Golden Dreams of Borneo as the tough pioneering spirit of the 19th century gives way to the more sophisticated politics of the 20th.

Kasus Kasus Manajemen Perusahaan Indonesia Seri 5 Aug 30 2022 embelajaran kasus sejatinya merupakan metode yang telah lama digunakan dalam pendidikan di bidang bisnis, hukum, kedokteran, hingga ilmu sosial. Metode ini menawarkan sejumlah kelebihan, seperti kemampuan untuk menangkap kompleksitas dan ambiguitas yang lazim dijumpai di dunia nyata. Metode kasus juga melatih aplikasi pendekatan yang lintas disiplin dan multiperspektif. Kelebihan-kelebihan semacam itulah yang tidak dapat diperoleh dalam kegiatan pembelajaran dan perkuliahan tradisional. Buku Kasus-Kasus Manajemen Perusahaan Indonesia 5 ini merupakan kelanjutan dari seri terdahulu yang telah sukses digunakan dalam kegiatan pembelajaran dan perkuliahan di berbagai sekolah bisnis di Indonesia. Namun, perubahan dan dinamika dunia bisnis yang terus bergulir dengan cepat menuntut pembaruan serta inovasi tanpa henti. Untuk menjadikan pengajaran bisnis dan manajemen tetap relevan dan mencapai tujuan pembelajaran yang diharapkan, kasus-kasus yang baru dan berbeda mutlak terus dibutuhkan. Kasus-kasus bahasan merupakan fenomena, kejadian, peristiwa, dan situasi yang diangkat dari beragam kejadian nyata. Kasus-kasus tersebut merepresentasikan realitas dan kompleksitas dunia bisnis dan manajemen di Indonesia. Semua kasus melibatkan unsur dilema, konflik, dan permasalahan manajemen bisnis yang sedang dihadapi dan perlu diselesaikan oleh pelaku atau protagonis di dalamnya. Oleh karenanya, diharapkan kasus-kasus tersebut mampu mendorong diskusi dan partisipasi aktif dalam kegiatan perkuliahan. Bagi mahasiswa, diskusi dan partisipasi dapat membantu mereka mengidentifikasi parameter dalam memecahkan masalah, mengenali dan mengartikulasikan posisi yang diambil, mengevaluasi pilihan-pilihan yang tersedia, dan mendiskusikan berbagai perspektif yang berbeda. Pada akhirnya, kasus-kasus semacam ini tidak hanya memberikan pemahaman tentang teori dan konsep manajemen bisnis yang lebih komprehensif, tetapi juga mampu menjembatani “knowing-doing gap” yang menjadi kepelikan dalam pengelolaan pendidikan bisnis, yaitu mengintegrasikan teori dengan realitas.

Indonesia and the Politics of Disaster Sep 06 2020 Named after Lapindo Brantas, a gas exploration company that was drilling at the eruption site, the Lapindo mudflow initially burst in 2006 and continues to flow today, becoming the most expensive disaster in Indonesia's history. Using this environmental incident in Indonesia as a case study, this book explores representations of disaster in scientific reports, public discourse, literature, and other cultural forms, observing the impact of these portrayals on the ways people both understand and respond to complicated environmental disasters. The author argues that power is expressed and contested in every representation of a disaster and its stakeholders. This book develops terminologies and perspectives that not only probe the social and ecological conditions that make disaster possible but also foster more effective and equitable strategies for adapting to a world fraught with hazards. Interdisciplinary in nature, this book makes a significant contribution to the fields of green cultural studies, disaster studies, science and technology studies and studies of political ecology in Southeast Asia.

CEO Wisdom 2 May 27 2022 Buku ini menyoroti sepak terjang 29 pemimpin asli Indonesia yang berhasil mengelola dan membesarkan organisasinya secara paripurna. Para pemimpin yang ditulis terbentang dari maestro yang puluhan tahun berkarya, hingga orang-orang muda yang secara signifikan pantas disebut bintang masa depan Indonesia. Tokoh kawakan semacam Liem Sioe Liong, Martha Tilaar, TP Rachmat, dan Tanri Abeng bersanding dengan orang-orang muda penuh idealisme seperti Erwin Aksa, Roslan Roeslani, Ihsan Mulia Putri, Putri Kuswisnuwardani, dan Yos Ginting. Mereka ini punya strategi tersendiri untuk memberi warna kepada organisasi yang dipimpinnnya, sekaligus berkontribusi secara signifikan kepada negeri yang membesarkannya: Indonesia. Tiga alasan utama yang mendasari pembuatan buku ini adalah: (1) Terlalu sedikit buku menyoal sepak terjang pemimpin asli Indonesia, (2) Para pemimpin asli Indonesia ini sukses mengembangkan bisnis di tengah maraknya praktik-praktik suap, kolusi, dan korupsi, serta (3) Para pemimpin bisnis asli Indonesia sukses dalam menggabungkan teori-teori bisnis kontemporer dan kearifan lokal. Sepantasnyalah kita belajar dari mereka yang tidak hanya berkhobah teori, tapi juga mempraktikkannya langsung dalam organisasi yang dipimpin.

Urban Geopolitics Jun 15 2021 In the last decade a new wave of urban research has emerged, putting comparative perspectives back on the urban studies agenda. However, this research is frequently based on similar case studies on a few selected cities in America and Europe and all too often focus on the abstract city level with marginal attention given to particular local contexts. Moving away from loosely defined urban theories and contexts, this book argues it is time to start learning from and compare across different 'contested cities'. It questions the long-standing Euro-centric academic knowledge production that is prevalent in urban studies and planning research. This book brings together a diverse range of international case studies from Latin America, South and South East Asia, Eastern Europe, Africa and the Middle East to offer an in-depth understanding of the worldwide contested nature of cities in a wide range of local contexts. It suggests an urban ontology that moves beyond the urban 'West' and 'North' as well as adding a comparative-relational understanding of the contested nature that 'Southern' cities are developing. This timely contribution is essential reading for those working in the fields of human geography, urban studies, planning, politics, area studies and sociology.

In the Name of Love Jul 29 2022 May 1998 in Jakarta, Indonesia. Mass Protest toppled President Suharto's authoritarian regime. It was the beginning of the democratic transition in Indonesia, a country with the largest Muslim population in the world. Unfortunately, there were also racial riots against Chinese-Indonesian (Tionghoa) people in that critical time. Based on the history of Indonesia, Tionghoa people have often been the target of mass tantrums. During the riot, dozens of Chinese and Tionghoa women experienced sexual violence. In addition, there were ample reports of sexual violations and targeting the Chinese girls. It's the first essay poetry book telling discrimination issues in the largest Muslim country, Indonesia. All five fictional stories are based on true events: Ahmadiyah, homosexuality, a migrant worker who became the rape victim, religious differences, and the impact of the racial riots of May 1998. Essay poetry has become a stylistic choice that any writer with a similar viewpoint can emulate.

Bahkan penyanyi legend Indonesia seperti Chrisye, Obbie Mesakh, Iwan Fals, dan Om Ade Ray pernah menggambarkan keindahan masa di sekolah lewat lagu-lagu mereka. Sayangnya, hidup itu enggak seperti dalam FTV. Kadang realita lebih nyesek daripada angan-angan. Kehidupan sekolah gue enggak semulus pantat bayi, banyak banget keapesan yang harus dilalui. Bagaimana gue menghadapi rintangan dan bertahan di belantara kehidupan sekolah? Di sinilah kisah keapesan gue dimulai.

Karakter Menentukan Masa Depan Bangsa Nov 28 2019 Dalam upaya mengenal jati diri dan karakter manusia, keingintahuan menjadi salah satu kunci penting. Pada dasarnya hambatan berasal dari diri manusia itu sendiri. Ungkapan "Kenali dirimu sendiri" sangat penting karena salah satu prinsip dalam kepemimpinan adalah "Kenali dirimu dan cari perbaikan". Membuat ukuran tentang karakter tidaklah mudah. Segala upaya akan berhasil baik dengan satu syarat, yaitu apabila yang bersangkutan memiliki kemampuan dan tekad untuk "berubah" mengubah karakter dirinya dan mengubah perilakunya agar menjadi lebih baik. "Siapa berubah" mudah dikatakan, tetapi tidak mudah dilaksanakan. Mengubah perilaku dan cara berpikir memerlukan komitmen dan kemampuan pengendalian diri serta kesadaran pribadi yang kuat. Seseorang dengan keunggulan karakter dan kepribadian yang mantap secara langsung ataupun tidak langsung dapat memengaruhi orang lain, kelompok, dan bangsa. Masa depan ditentukan oleh hal-hal yang dilakukan bangsa itu pada masa lalu dan masa sekarang. Maka, kualitas karakter pemimpin dapat memengaruhi perjalanan sejarah sebuah bangsa. Inilah yang dijelaskan dalam buku ini. Seperti kata bijak "Knowledge is Power but Character is More", karakter menjadi hal yang sangat penting dalam diri seseorang. Sosok pemimpin yang layak adalah sosok yang berkarakter mulia, sudah tidak bermasalah dengan dirinya, dan mampu memberikan teladan dan pengaruh yang lebih baik dalam perubahan bangsa
